An estimated 500,000 Forgotten Australians and 7,000 Former Child Migrants were placed in non-government homes, orphanages and other forms of out-of-home 'care' last century.

2

Australian Parliament Apology to Forgotten Australians & Former Child Migrants was followed by the announcement of a range of Find & Connect initiatives funded by the Australian Government.

4

The Find & Connect web resource helps Forgotten Australians and Former Child Migrants find information about records.

5

The web resource also has links to photographs, newspaper articles, links to support services, legislation, and other information related to past and present providers of out-of-home 'care' in Australia.
