FIND & CONNECT WEB RESOURCE - WHAT'S IT ALL ABOUT?

1 IN INSTITUTIONS... THE PERSON IS LOST, THE CHILD IS LOST. WHO WAS KERRY? WHAT COLOURS DID SHE LIVE? WHAT MUSIC DID SHE LIKE? WHAT WAS HER POTENTIAL? ALL THAT STUFF WAS NEVER KNOWN.

An estimated 500,000 Forgotten Australians and 7000 Former Child Migrants were placed in non-government homes, orphanages and other forms of out-of-home 'care' last century.

2 Australian Parliament Apology to Forgotten Australians & Former Child Migrants was followed by the announcement of a range of Find & Connect initiatives funded by the Australian Government.

3 The Find & Connect web resource helps Forgotten Australians and Former Child Migrants find information about records.

The web resource also has links to photographs, newspaper articles, links to support services, legislation, and other information related to past and present providers of out-of-home 'care' in Australia.

FIND & CONNECT FACT SHEET 1: HOW TO USE THE WEBSITE

A web resource for people who experienced out-of-home 'care'

INTRODUCING THE WEB RESOURCE

Find & Connect is a website for Forgotten Australians and Former Child Migrants, and for anyone with an interest in the history of out-of-home 'care' in Australia. The website brings together historical resources relating to institutional 'care' in Australia.

You can use Find & Connect to:

- read information about and view images of children's homes
- get help to find records about your childhood in 'care'
- connect with support groups and services in your state/territory

HOW TO USE THE WEBSITE

The site has several key search functions:

- 1 Look for homes
A good place to start. Search for information about orphanages, children's homes and other institutions, including links to records and photos.
- 2 Look for photos
Search for photos of orphanages, children's homes and other institutions.
- 3 Look for records
Search for information about archival records.

SEARCH THIS SITE

The website contains information on organisations, legislation, events and more, in addition to homes, photos and records. You can Search this site to search all of this information.

Search this site allows you to filter the results by:

- State
- Function
- Type of entry
- Date

Print guidelines: print all posters to A3 colour at actual size (not shrink to fit) – the posters have been set up to take into account the non print area of printers. Facsheets should be printed double sided A4 at actual size.

The preferred order for display of the posters is above.

Please display posters along with bookmarks (3) and the factsheet (4) Please do not display these guidelines.

For more copies of the bookmarks, other collateral or further enquiries please contact the Find & Connect web resource team:
