

Lowana Youth Services

1989 – 2012

Details

Lowana Youth Services, located in Kambah, was established in 1989. It provided transitional housing for young people experiencing homelessness and/or leaving youth justice institutions. It included a safe house for young women escaping family violence. Lowana Youth Services was closed by the ACT government in April 2012 as part of a re-design of specialist homelessness service provision.

More info

Related Entries

Related Organisations

- Quamby Youth Detention Centre \(1962 - 2008\)

Lowana Youth Services provided programs and assistance aimed at helping young people exiting Quamby Youth Detention Centre before its closure in 2008.

Date: 1989 - 2008

- Bimberi Youth Justice Centre \(2008 - current\)

Lowana Youth Services included programs and assistance aimed at helping young people exiting Bimberi Youth Justice Centre.

Resources

- Graham, Marilyn, The secret life of us: young homeless women with complex needs, 2005

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/lowana-youth-services/>