

Centacare Catholic Family Services

1998 – 2011

Other Names: • Centacare

Details

Centacare Catholic Family Services was formerly known as the Catholic Social Service Bureau. The name change, to reflect the organisation's 'commitment to families' was announced by Catholic Archbishop of Melbourne George Pell in December 1998. The Department of Human Services funded Centacare's Adoption and Permanent Care Service, which incorporated an information service about previous adoptions.

More info

Chronology

- Catholic Social Service Bureau - Archdiocese of Melbourne (1935 - 1956)
 - Catholic Family Welfare Bureau (Archdiocese of Melbourne) (1956 - 1998)
- Centacare Catholic Family Services (1998 – 2011)
 - CatholicCare Victoria (2011 - current)

Resources

- Our History, CatholicCare Victoria, No date

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/centacare-catholic-family-services/>