Robin House

1962 – 1976

Details

Robin House was a children's home in Fitzroy, established by the Victorian Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children in 1962. Robin House was a small, temporary care unit, accommodating 12 children between the ages of 2 and 14 years. In December 1976, Robin House closed, and was replaced by Alys Keys House, in Heidelberg.

The Gertrude Street property was sold by the Children's Protection Society in 1986.
