

Mercy Family Life Centre, Waitara

1977 - 1994

Details

The Mercy Family Life Centre Waitara was previously known as Our Lady of Mercy Home and was run by the Sisters of Mercy. It was built in a part of the grounds of the old Waitara Orphanage (Our Lady of Mercy) in 1977. In 1994, it was incorporated and became the Mercy Family Centre.

Mercy Family Life Centre was a Catholic welfare programme that evolved as a three stage project: counselling, welfare, emergency accommodation, educational services to families, child care services and aged care services.
