

Eskdale

1915 – 1953

Other Names: • No 5 Cottage

Details

Eskdale was opened as part of the Burnside Presbyterian Orphan Homes in November 1915 at North Parramatta. It was the fourth home at Burnside, and held 60 girls. It was not used for residential care after 1953.

With the rest of Burnside's cottages, 'Eskdale' was evacuated for the war in 1942. When the children returned Eskdale served as a temporary kindergarten, from 1945 to 1947, then became a girls' home in 1948. It was vacated in 1953 then stood empty until 1985, when it was converted for the Archives of the Uniting Church. It is now office space for UnitingCare Burnside.

More info

Related Entries

Run by

- Burnside Presbyterian Orphan Homes \(1911 - 1955\)
Eskdale was one of the cottages at Burnside Presbyterian Orphan Homes

Other Resources

Title: Eskdale

Type: Image

Date: c. 2013

Details

Records

For more information and to access your records, follow the links below:

Records

- Records held by Burnside Archives \(1911 - current\)
-