

Rathmore

1943 – 1948

Details

Rathmore was a children's home established by the United Protestant Association of New South Wales in 1943. It housed children under the age of seven and was located next to Rathgar, the first head office of the United Protestant Association. Rathmore closed in 1948.

In 1948 Rathmore was closed and converted to the District Office and residence of the District Manager of the United Protestant Association.
