

Glen Eden Home

1947 – 1961

Details

Glen Eden Home in Glen Innes was established by the United Protestant Association of New South Wales in 1947. It was a boys' home that had up to 40 boys in residence at any one time. The property, which was the New England Grammar School prior to being purchased by UPA, included a two-storey dormitory building, but was closed due to high costs and changing patterns of child care in 1961.
