

Northcott

1995 –

Other Names: • Northcott Society

URL: <https://www.northcott.com.au/>

Details

Northcott is the modern name for the New South Wales Society for Crippled Children, which ran the disability institution Beverley Park and the Margaret Reid Orthopaedic Hospital for Crippled Children. In 1995 the Society changed its name to the Northcott Society, in honour of Governor Northcott, a past patron. In 2012 the organisation called itself Northcott.

More info

Chronology

- New South Wales Society for Crippled Children (1929 - 1995)
 - Northcott (1995 –)

Related Entries

Ran

- Beverley Park Estate \(1937 - 1998\)
Date: 1995 -

Related Organisations

- Margaret Reid Orthopaedic Hospital for Crippled Children \(1937 - 1981\)

Holds

- Records of Margaret Reid Orthopaedic Hospital for Crippled Children \(1937 - 1981\), Northcott
- Records of the New South Wales Society for Crippled Children \(1929 - 1995\)

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/northcott/>