

St Gerard's [Home]

1980 – 1985

Details

St Gerard's [Home] was a home for children and families in crisis that was conducted by Centacare social workers and the Sisters of St Joseph's from 1980 until 1985. Children and families were referred from the Department of Youth and Community Services' Montrose Child Protection Unit, and they were cared for at St Gerard's with the help of Centacare social workers. St Gerard's was in the building that had formerly been St Gerard's and St Anne's Hospital.

More info

Chronology

- St Anne's [Hospital] (1944 - 1951)
 - St Anne's Nursery (1952 - 1963)
 - St Gerard's [Hospital] (1964 - 1980)
- St Gerard's [Home] (1980 – 1985)

Related Entries

Run by

- Sisters of St Joseph of the Sacred Heart \(1866 - current\)

Related Organisations

- Department of Youth and Community Services, State Government of New South Wales \(1976 - 1988\)
The Department of Youth and Community Services [11] referred children in its care at Montrose Child Protection Unit to the Sisters of St Joseph, who cared for them at St Gerard's, with the help of Centacare socialworkers
 - St Anthony's Home Croydon \(1925 - 1980\)
St Gerard's was on the site of St Anthony's Home Croydon
 - Centacare Catholic Community Services Sydney \(1967 - 2011\)
 - Montrose Child Protection Centre \(c. 1978 - c. 2009\)
Montrose Child Protection Unit referred children and families to St Gerard's.
Date: 1980 - 1985
-

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/st-gerards-home/>