

Pallister Young People's Unit and Special School

1977 – 1981

Details

Pallister Young People's Unit and Special School was established in 1977 by the Church of England Deaconess Institution at Pallister House, in the grounds of Greenwich Hospital, Greenwich. The building, also known as Standish, had previously been a girls' home known as Pallister House or Lisgar Trust. It closed in 1981.
