

Christ Church St Laurence Welfare Bureau

1936 – c. 1941

Details

The Christ Church St Laurence Welfare Bureau ran after-care clinics and employment schemes to assist boys who had been through criminal hearings in the Children's Court but were discharged. It was part of Christ Church St Laurence, an Anglo-Catholic (Anglican) Church based in Haymarket. It is thought to have operated between 1936 and around 1941.

More info

Related Entries

Related Organisations

- Metropolitan Children's Court \(1911 - 1983\)
Christ Church St Laurence Welfare Bureau worked with boys who had been through the Metropolitan Children's Court.
Date: 1936 - 1941
- Children's Court of New South Wales \(October 1905 - current\)
Christ Church St Laurence Welfare Bureau worked with boys who had been through Children's Courts.
Date: 1936 - 1941

Related Concepts

- Probation \(c. 1905 - current\)
Christ Church St Laurence Welfare Bureau worked with boys on probation.
Date: 1936 - 1941

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/christ-church-st-laurence-welfare-bureau/>