

Apprentices Act 1894, New South Wales

1894 – 1901

URL: <https://www.legislation.nsw.gov.au/view/pdf/asmade/act-1894-17a>

Details

The Apprentices Act 1894 [22/1894 (57 Vic. No.22)], also known as 'An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to Apprentices' dealt with apprenticeships in the modern sense, as labour contracts between masters and those learning a trade. It set out rules for wages, penalties, and how an apprentice could enter and leave employment. It was repealed by the Apprentices Act 1901.

More info

Chronology

- Apprentices Act 1894, New South Wales (1894 – 1901)
 - Apprentices Act 1901, New South Wales (1901 - 1969)

Related Entries

Related Glossary Terms

- Apprenticeship \(1860s - 1960s\)

Related Legislation

- Apprenticeship Act 1851, New South Wales \(1851 - 1901\)

Resources

- Parliamentary Counsel's Office, NSW legislation, No date
-

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/apprentices-act-1894-2/>