

Belmont Crippled Children's Home

1952 – 1979

Other Names:

- Newcastle Crippled Children's Homes at Belmont
- Crippled Children's Home

Details

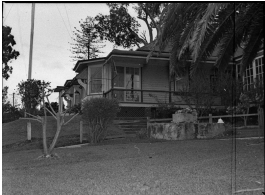

The Belmont Crippled Children's Home opened in April 1952 in Belmont at Newcastle. It was a holiday home run by the NSW Crippled Children's Association. The property was demolished in 1979.

Gallery

Weeroona, NSW Crippled Children's Association holiday home, Walter St Belmont. Formerly belonged to John Christian Reid and family. Demolished 1979

Description: This photo is undated, the date included is an estimate.

Newcastle Crippled Children's Homes at Belmont. Opening by Minister for Lands, Mr Hawkins

Description: This image shows the gardens and part of the house of the Belmont Crippled Children's Home.

Belmont Crippled Children's Home

Description: This image shows children holding hands on the lawn outside the Belmont Cripple Children's Home.

More info

Related Entries

Run by

- New South Wales Society for Crippled Children \(1929 - 1995\)

Resources

- Holiday Home for Crippled, Newcastle Morning Herald and Miners' Advocate, 5 February 1952
-

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/belmont-crippled-childrens-home-2/>