

Jellicoe Street Family Group Home

1967 – 1994

Other Names: • Jellicoe Street Family Home

Details

The Jellicoe Street Family Group Home, in Mt Lofty, Toowoomba, was operated by the Presbyterian Church. It was opened and licensed under the Children's Services Act 1965 in April 1967. It closed in December 1994.

The Presbyterian Church of Queensland has advised that there are very few surviving records. There is no information on any of the family group homes from the time prior to the creation of the Uniting Church in 1977.

After that time, some records exist, including: registration forms, Children's services/Family Services admission forms, some information of children referred there (their background, some medical information, list of movements).

More info

Related Entries

Run by

- Presbyterian Church of Queensland \(1849 - current\)

Date: 1967 - 1994

Related Legislation

- Children's Services Act 1965, Queensland \(1965 - 2000\)

Related Organisations

- Lovett Street Family Home \(1968? - 2000\)

The Jellicoe Street Family Group Home and Lovett Street Family Home were funded by a bequest from the Specht family, and were sometimes referred to as 'the Specht homes'.

Records

For more information and to access your records, follow the links below:

Records

- Presbyterian Children's Homes Records \(October 1922 - May 1977\)
 - UnitingCare Queensland Records \(1910 - current\)
-

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/jellicoe-street-family-group-home/>