

United Protestant Association of Queensland

c. 1938 – 1974?

Other Names: • UPA

Details

The United Protestant Association of Queensland was a Christian Welfare organisation established in around 1938. It ran a children's Home in Corinda from 1951 until 1974. The Home was closed under controversial circumstances and may have also led to the shutting down of the United Protestant Association of Queensland.

More info

Related Entries

Ran

- Beulah Home \(1960 - 7 September 1974\)
- United Protestant Association Home \(1951 - c. 1960\)

Resources

- Ministerial Statement: closure of the 'Beulah' Girls' Home, Corinda, Queensland Parliamentary Debates [Hansard], Legislative Assembly, 3 September 1974

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/united-protestant-association-of-queensland/>