

Sandeman Nursery

1897 – 1898

Details

The Sandeman Nursery at Wynnum operated in conjunction with St Mary's Home. It opened in 1897 and was run by the Anglican Society of the Sacred Advent. It accommodated babies born to women at St Mary's, who were awaiting adoption or transfer to the Good Shepherd Home at Nundah. Sandeman Nursery closed in 1898 and the children were transferred to St Mary's at Taringa.
