

North Queensland Society for Crippled Children

1951 – 1991

Details

The North Queensland Society for Crippled Children was founded in 1951 by a group of citizens to provide care, education and training of children who contracted poliomyelitis during the poliomyelitis epidemic. In 1991, the North Queensland Society for Crippled Children changed its name to Cootharinga Society of North Queensland.

More info

Chronology

- North Queensland Society for Crippled Children (1951 – 1991)
 - Cootharinga Society of North Queensland (1991 - 2002)
 - Cootharinga North Queensland (2002 - current)

Related Entries

Ran

- Cootharinga Home for Crippled Children \(1957 - 1994\)

Resources

- North Queensland Society for Crippled Children, Annual Report/ the North Queensland Society for Crippled Children (Incorporated), 1952
- Social Work Staff, Faculty of Education, University of Queensland, Directory of Social Services Queensland, 1958

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/north-queensland-society-for-crippled-children/>