

Duncan Infants' Home

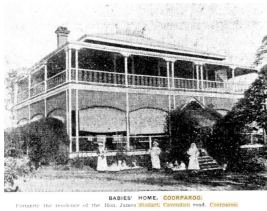

January 1921 – March 1922

Details

Duncan Infants' Home was run by a private management committee known as the Queensland Association for the Saving of Infant Life. It was established in January 1921 and in March 1922 it moved to Oxley. The Home was renamed St Agnes Babies' Home.

From the first week of January 1921 the home operated out of rented premises at Coorparoo for 15 months. In March 1922 it moved to a more suitable permanent home, 'Cliveden' at Oxley.

Gallery

Babies' Home, Coorparoo

Description: This is an image of the Duncan Infants' Home at Coorparoo. It shows a large two-storey house with wrap-around verandahs. There are three women standing at the front of the house with a number of babies. This image was published in The Week on 3 June 1921 with the caption "Babies' Home, Coorparoo. Formerly the residence of the Hon. James Stodart, Cavendish road, Coorparoo".

More info

Chronology

- Corinda Infants' Home (6 September 1915 - 3 November 1919)
 - Duncan Infants' Home (January 1921 – March 1922)
 - St Agnes Babies Home (March 1922 - 30 July 1923)

Related Entries

Run by

- The Queensland Association for the Saving of Infant Life \(1916 - 1923\)
-

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/duncan-infants-home/>