

Glandore Family Home

1972 – 1975

Other Names: • Pleasant Avenue Cottage

Details

Glandore Family Home was opened by the government at Glandore in 1972 on the site of the Glandore Boys' Home. It provided short term emergency care for children and temporary care for children on remand. It operated as an adjunct to the Windana Remand Home. In 1975 it was renamed Pleasant Avenue Cottage.

Glandore Family Home was opened by the Department of Community Welfare at 58 Pleasant Avenue, Glandore, on 17 February 1972. It was situated on the site of the Glandore Boys' Home. Glandore Family Home provided emergency and short-term care for children while a family crisis was being assessed or while other placement options were being determined. It also provided temporary care for children on remand, and operated as an adjunct to the Windana Remand Home. Glandore Family Home was reported in Departmental annual reports as caring for four children.

In 1975 it was renamed Pleasant Avenue Cottage.

More info

Chronology

- Glandore Family Home (1972 – 1975)
 - Pleasant Avenue Cottage (1975 - 1979)

Related Entries

Run by

- Department for Community Welfare, South Australian Government \(1972 - 1990\)
Date: 1972 - 1979

Related Glossary Terms

- Family Home \(1960s - current\)

Related Organisations

- Windana Remand Home \(1965 - 1975\)
Glandore Family Home operated as an adjunct to the Windana Remand Home
- Glandore Boys' Home \(1966 - 1973\)
Glandore Family Home was situated in the grounds of Glandore Boys' Home

Records

For more information and to access your records, follow the links below:

Records

- Records of the Social Welfare Department and predecessors \(1849 - c. 1987\)
-

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/glandore-family-home/>