

Dismus House, Good Samaritans, Greek Orthodox

1980 – 1980s

Details

Dismus House was opened by the Good Samaritan Order of the Greek Orthodox Church in 1980 in a former hospital building at 54 Augusta Street, Glenelg. Run by a management committee it provided care, counselling and vocation opportunities for youth. It had two dormitories that accommodated up to 12 residents. Dismus House is thought to have closed in the 1980s.

More info

Related Entries

Run by

- Good Samaritan Order of the Greek Orthodox Church

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/dismus-house/>