

Church of England Diocesan Mission House

1945 – 1949

Details

The Church of England Diocesan Mission House opened on Wellington Square in North Adelaide in 1945. The Sisters of the Community of the Holy Name ran it as a short term refuge and hostel for women and children. In 1949 the Mission House changed its name to the Hostel of the Holy Name.

The Church of England Diocesan Mission House opened at 13 Wellington Square, North Adelaide in February 1945. The property had been purchased in November of the previous year. The Sisters of the Community of the Holy Name ran the Mission House as a short term refuge and hostel for women and children. The Sisters aimed to work in close cooperation with the government Welfare Department in order to care for girls on remand or probation as well as children from families 'in distress'. As the Mission House only provided short-term care for children, the Sisters assisted in placing children into longer-term care arrangements.

In 1949 the Mission House changed its name to the Hostel of the Holy Name.

Gallery

Hostel of the Holy Name

Description: This image was included in the Finding Your Own Way guide, section 1. The image shows the front of the Hostel of the Holy Name.

More info

Chronology

- Church of England Diocesan Mission House (1945 – 1949)
 - Hostel of the Holy Name (1949 - 1975)

Related Entries

Run by

- Community of the Holy Name \(1888 - current\)

Date: 1945 - 1949

Resources

- As part of the Church of England plan for the expansion of Christian welfare work, Mornington, in Wellington square, North Adelaide, has been purchased as a Diocesan Mission House., The Advertiser, 25 November 1944

Records

For more information and to access your records, follow the links below:

Records

- Hostel of the Holy Name Records \(1947 - 1967\)
 - [Correspondence files, single number series with 'B' \[Child Endowment\] prefix \(1904 - 1974\)](#)
-

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/church-of-england-diocesan-mission-house/>