

Townsend House for Deaf and Blind Children

1970 – 1999

Details

Townsend House for Deaf and Blind Children, located in Brighton, was formed in 1970 when the Townsend House Schools for Deaf and Blind Children were divided into a State Government-run day school called South Australian Schools for Deaf and Blind Children, and a residential section called Townsend House for Deaf and Blind Children. Run by a private committee Townsend House provided residential care for vision and hearing impaired children. In 1999 residential facilities at Townsend House closed.

More info

Chronology

- South Australian Institution for the Blind and Deaf and Dumb (1874 - 1946)
 - Townsend House Schools for Deaf and Blind Children (1946 - 1970)
- Townsend House for Deaf and Blind Children (1970 – 1999)

Related Entries

Related Events

- Interstate movement of Northern Territory children \(1930s - 1970s\)

Resources

- Disability Information and Resource Centre, Townsend House - photo collection, No date
-

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/townsend-house-for-deaf-and-blind-children/>