

Aboriginal Catholic Community

1978 –

Other Names: • ACC

Details

The Aboriginal Catholic Community (ACC) was established in 1978. It provided services to Aboriginal people in Adelaide including an opportunity shop, craft centre and social centre. The ACC also ran a street work program in Hindley Street in Adelaide with the aim to assist Aboriginal youth. The ACC ran Otherway House from 1983-1984 and also operated the Otherway Centre, an administrative centre in Pirie Street, Adelaide.
