

ICRA Cottage

1979 – 1994

Other Names: • Naldera Cottage

Details

ICRA House, also known as Naldera Cottage, opened as a Hostel for refugee children under the Unaccompanied Refugee Youth Programme in 1979. The former Naldera Family Home in Glandore was leased by the government to the Indo-Chinese Refugee Association for the purpose. The Home provided accommodation for 5 Vietnamese children who had come to Australia as refugees, unaccompanied by their parents. ICRA House closed in 1994.

More info

Related Entries

Run by

- Indo-Chinese Refugee Association \(1975 - 1994\)

Related Organisations

- Naldera Family Home \(1975? - 1978\)

ICRA Cottage was located in the building that was formerly the Naldera Family Home.

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/icra-cottage/>