

Central Board of Health

1885 – 1903

Details

The Central Board of Health, which had five members appointed by the Governor, was established by the Public Health Act 1885. Its purpose was to exercise some control over local Boards of Health appointed by municipal councils. In 1903, the Public Health Department replaced the Central Board of Health.

More info

Chronology

- Central Board of Health (1885 – 1903)
 - Public Health Department, State of Tasmania (1904 - 1956)
 - Department of Health Services, State of Tasmania (1956 - 1989)
 - Department of Health, State of Tasmania (1989 - 1993)
 - Department of Community and Health Services, State of Tasmania (1993 - 1998)
 - Department of Health and Human Services, State of Tasmania (1998 - current)

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/central-board-of-health/>