North Western General Hospital

1965 – c. 1995
Other Names:
- North West General Hospital

Details

The North Western General Hospital, run by the government, opened in 1965 following an amalgamation with the Burnie General Hospital and the Spencer Public Hospital in Wynyard. In the mid 1990s the North Western General Hospital became the North West Regional Hospital.

More info

Records

Records

- Admission Register, Spencer Public Hospital and North Western General Hospital (1928 - 1975)

You can view this page online by visiting https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/north-western-general-hospital/