Details

Anglican Health and Welfare Services was an agency established by the Anglican Diocese of Perth in 1974. It aimed to coordinate and manage welfare services in the diocese, including out of home care. It was common for government reports to mention both 'Anglican Health and Welfare Services' and 'Anglicare' as the operator of out of home care programs. After 1992, Anglicare is mentioned as the lead agency. From 2003 Anglican Health and Welfare Services had the legal name Anglicare WA.
