

Cistercian Order of the Strict Observance (Trappists)

1895 –

Other Names: • Trappists

URL: <http://www.cistercian.org.au>

---

Details

The Cistercian Order of the Strict Observance, known widely as the 'Trappists', came to Beagle Bay in Western Australia in 1895 to establish a mission. The mission was transferred to the Pallottines by 1901.

---

More info

---

Related Entries

Ran

- Beagle Bay Mission \(1895 - 1976\)
The Cistercian Order of the Strict Observance (Trappists) established Beagle Bay Mission.
Date: 1895 - 1901
- Orfelin Ecole \(Orphan School\), Broome \(1895? - 1898?\)
Trappist Father Nicholas established and ran the orphan school in Broome and remained there as parish priest.
Date: 1895? - 1898?

Related Organisations

- Catholic Diocese of Broome \(1897? - current\)
The Cistercian Order of the Strict Observance (Trappists) established Beagle Bay Mission within the parish which is now the Catholic Diocese of Broome. The first parish priest in Broome was a Trappist.
Date: 1895 -

---

Resources

- Bates, Daisy \(1859-1951\), Trove, 2008
- Wright, R.V.S., Bates, Daisy May \(1863-1951\), Australian Dictionary of Biography Online [website], 2006
- Bates, Daisy and Project Gutenberg Australia, The passing of the Aborigines \(1938\) a lifetime spent among the natives of Australia., 2004