

Government Receiving Home

1935 – 1952

Other Names:

- Mt Lawley Reception Home
- Receiving Home
- Receiving Depot

Details

Government Receiving Home was the new name given in 1935 to the Government Receiving Depot in Mount Lawley, which provided temporary accommodation to children awaiting placements with foster parents or institutions, including members of the Stolen Generations. In 1953 Government Receiving Home became the Child Welfare Reception Home. It also accommodated children who were awaiting medical or dental treatment in Perth, or who were scheduled for appearance at the Children's Court. Private admissions were also accommodated.
