

Methodist Missionary Society of Australasia

1916 – 1930s

Other Names: • Methodist Overseas Mission

Details

The Methodist Missionary Society of Australasia ran a number of Missions in the North of Australia from 1916. The Missions included Goulburn Island, Milingimbi and Elcho Island. In the mid 1930s the Methodist Missionary Society of Australasia gradually became known as the Methodist Overseas Mission.

More info

Chronology

- Methodist Missionary Society of Australasia (1916 – 1930s)
 - Methodist Overseas Mission (c. 1930 - 1980)

Related Entries

Ran

- Goulburn Island Mission \(1916 - 1973\)

The Goulburn Island Mission was run by the Methodist Missionary Society of Australasia until the mid 1930s when the organisation changed its name to the Methodist Overseas Mission.
Date: 1916 - 1930s
- Milingimbi Mission \(1923 - 1974\)

The Milingimbi Mission was run by the Methodist Missionary Society of Australasia until the mid 1930s when the organisation changed its name to the Methodist Overseas Mission.
Date: 1923 - 1930s
- Elcho Island Mission \(1921 - 1923\)

Date: 1921 - 1923

Records

Records

- Records of the Uniting Church in Australia, Northern Synod \(1940 - 1986\)
 - Records of the Methodist Church of Australasia, Department of Overseas Missions \(1830 - 1980\)
-

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/methodist-missionary-society-of-australasia/>