

Australian Baptist Home Mission

c. 1945 – 1978

Details

The Australian Baptist Home Mission was the missionary arm of the Baptist Church in Australia. It first began mission work in Central and Northern Australia during the Second World War. In 1947 the first Baptist missionaries were sent to the Government settlement at Yuendumu. This practice was repeated at Warrabri and Hooker Creek Native Settlement. In 1978 the Australian Baptist Home Mission became part of the Australian Baptist Missionary Society, who took over the responsibilities of the Baptist Home Mission.

More info

Chronology

- Australian Baptist Home Mission (c. 1945 – 1978)
 - Australian Baptist Missionary Society (1978 - 2003?)
 - Global Interaction (2003? - 2021)
 - Baptist Mission Australia (2021 - current)

Related Entries

Ran

- Hooker Creek Native Settlement \(1948 - 1978\)

Related Organisations

- Yuendumu Native Settlement \(1946 - 1976\)

The Australian Baptist Home Mission supplied missionaries to work at Yuendumu Native Settlement
- Warrabri \(1954 - 1978\)

Missionaries from the Australian Baptist Home Mission worked as staff at Warrabri
- Wave Hill Welfare Settlement \(1970 - 1975\)

Missionaries from the Australian Baptist Home Mission operated at the Wave Hill Welfare Settlement

Records

Records

- Records of Baptist Church Missions, Central Australia \(1947 - 1970s\)
-