

Uniting Church in Australia, Northern Synod

1977 –

Details

The Uniting Church in Australia, Northern Synod includes the Northern Territory and regions of Western Australia. The Northern Synod is one of the six Synods that comprise the Uniting Church in Australia which was established in 1977 through the union of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational churches of Australia. It covers a region that includes Darwin and extends west to Broome, east to Gove and as far south as the Pitjantjara lands.

More info

Related Entries

Ran

- Kormilda College \(1967 - 2017\)

The Uniting Church and the Anglican Church jointly ran Kormilda College from 1989.

Date: 1989 -

Related Organisations

- Methodist Overseas Mission \(c. 1930 - 1980\)

Records

Records

- Records of the Uniting Church in Australia, Northern Synod \(1940 - 1986\)

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/uniting-church-in-australia-northern-synod/>