Department of Health, State Government of South Australia

2004 – 2012

Details

The Department of Health was established in 2004. It was responsible for the policy, administration, and operation of state health services, including public hospitals. In 2008 the Health Commission was transferred to the Department of Health and renamed the Health Performance Council. In 2012 the Department of Health was renamed the Department of Health and Ageing.

More info

Chronology

- Colonial Surgeon's Office, State Government of South Australia (1836 - 1914)
  - Inspector General of Hospitals Office, State Government of South Australia (1914 - 1940)
    - Hospitals Department, State Government of South Australia (1940 - 1978)
      - Health Commission, State Government of South Australia (1978 - 2008)

  - Department of Health, State Government of South Australia (2004 – 2012)

Related Entries

Ran
- Glenside Hospital (1967 - 2007)

Resources

- Daniels, Elizabeth, _South Australian Department of Health (2004 - 2012)_, Encyclopedia of Australian Science, 2019

You can view this page online by visiting https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/department-of-health-state-government-of-south-australia/